

Transition Times Can Put You at a Higher Risk of a DUI Arrest

What do divorce and DUI have in common? Here at Reynolds Defense Firm, we've found that good people don't usually get arrested for DUI when life is going smoothly. Instead, good people find themselves arrested for DUI when some part of life isn't working the way they need it to. Eventually the stress or pressure or discomfort from life's turbulence can boil over, and an otherwise responsible person may find themselves doing something that doesn't make sense – something like driving after drinking. We hope that never happens to you or someone you believe in, but if it does, your ability to quickly find the right DUI law firm to help you is critical.

Reynolds Defense Firm – DUI Defense Specialists

Reynolds Defense Firm (www.reynoldsdefensefirm.com) specializes in one thing – representing good people facing DUI charges. Over the past 15 years they've become the largest DUI defense specialist law firm in Oregon. With over 60 years of combined legal experience (not just as defense attorneys, but also as prosecutors, as courtroom judges and as administrative law judges) between their six attorneys, they are truly fantastic at the law, and that is part of the reason for their success. The other part, and what makes Reynolds Defense Firm unique, is the way they help our clients not just with their legal challenges, but they also help our clients move forward in life.

The understanding that a DUI arrest is usually an indication of life's turmoil led to Reynolds Defense Firm's Vision: We change people's lives by helping them understand why they were arrested, and by giving them the tools and encouragement to address the real problems in their lives.

Reynolds Defense Firm's Blue Binder Project – Helping Clients with Life's Challenges

One of the most successful ways Reynolds Defense Firm has found to help people is through a program they developed called Blue Binder Project, www.bluebinderproject.com, a curriculum-based program that has helped hundreds of people say things like, "being arrested was the best worst mistake of my life."

Why is Blue Binder Project so successful? Because being arrested shakes a person to their core, and out of this trauma comes a brief but extraordinary period of time – their Window of Clarity. For about thirty days, a person has the ability to see their life from above their day-to-day or week-to-week existence – this is their opportunity to see what is working and what isn't working, and to make tremendous gains in personal growth. But this window doesn't stay open for long. All too soon, each of us falls back into a routine again, and what was so clear starts to fade.

Blue Binder Project offers a scientifically validated curriculum and one-on-one coaching sessions with licensed professionals to help Reynolds Defense Firm clients shift their mindset, set meaningful goals and create real and lasting change in their lives. In just four weeks, clients are able to see their lives and themselves differently, with more hope and clarity, and begin the steps to make change happen.

Reynolds Defense Firm and Landerholm Law - Mutual Trust and Respect

Truly specializing in DUI law or divorce law requires the dedication to pursue a single area of law over the course of many years. The level of expertise that Reynolds Defense Firm and Landerholm Law both have is rare; even more rare is that each also combines their legal expertise with a core belief in genuinely helping people. If you or someone you believe in needs help with a DUI, please call Reynolds Defense Firm. MacDaniel Reynolds is the well-accomplished CEO and founder of Reynolds Defense Firm. His firm is highly decorated with awards, and was most recently acknowledged as Portland Business Journal's top 100 fastest growing companies across all industries in 2018. MacDaniel prides that his practice is small, personal, and specialized, as they do one thing and do it very well: Reynolds Defense Firm represents good people facing DUI charges. He truly believes if you've been arrested for a DUI, you need a three-dimensional law firm to help you. Under his leadership, his team understands that law isn't the whole solution to your situation, and having repeat clients is never the underlying goal. Because of this, every single person his team represents has the option to participate in the Blue Binder Project (BBP), an intensive 4-week coaching program. He designed this scientifically validated program to help his clients identify and successfully address whatever was making them feel stuck in life. To learn more about
